

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface and acknowledgements	IX
Map of toilets discussed in this volume	XI

PART 1

Detailed descriptions of toilets and urinals of Rome

Domestic and business spaces

1.	Domus on Via Sacra, urinals of first century BC Maura Medri	3
2.	Insula under San Giovanni Addolorata Hospital, single-seater toilet of early second century AD Gemma Jansen and Thea Ravasi	7
3-5.	Northeast slope of Palatine, single-seater toilets (3-4) and multi-seater toilet (5) of Hadrianic period Lucia Saguì and Matilde Cante	13
6.	Domus of the commander of castra on the Caelius, small toilet of Severan period Simona Morretta and Flavia Failli	19
7.	Insula under SS. Giovanni e Paolo, single-seater toilet of third or fourth century AD Franco Astolfi (†) and Gemma Jansen	21
8.	Domus of Vicus Caprarius, three-seater toilet of fourth century AD Lorenzo Dell'Aquila and Gemma Jansen	23

Baths

9-10.	Baths of Trajan, multi-seater toilets in northeastern (9) and northwestern (10) semicircular annexes Richard Neudecker	27
11-12.	Baths of Caracalla, multi-seater toilets in eastern (11) and western (12) curved annexes Marina Piranomonte, Bruno De Benedetti and Alessio Lo Conte	31
13.	Balneum under Piazza dei Cinquecento, multi-seater toilet of late second century AD Ann Olga Koloski-Ostrow	37
14.	Balneum under Lateran Baptistery, multi-seater toilet of Severan period Gemma Jansen and Thea Ravasi	41
15.	Balneum at sanctuary of Dea Dia on Via Campana, multi-seater toilet of third century AD Gemma Jansen	45
16.	Balneum at Via del Tritone, multi-seater toilet of late third / early fourth century AD Marta Baumgartner and Nicoletta Saviane	49
17.	Baths of Diocletian, multi-seater toilet in northeastern annex Richard Neudecker	53

Public spaces

18.	Sanctuary of Claudius, multi-seater toilet at outside, indicated on the Forma Urbis Romae Richard Neudecker	59
-----	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

19-21.	Urinals of the Colosseum Elisa Cella and Gemma Jansen	61
22.	Paterclianae Sellae, recorded by Martial Richard Neudecker	67
23.	Forum Iulium, multi-seater toilet of Trajanic period Jens Koehler	69
24.	Crypta Balbi, multi-seater toilet of Hadrianic period in the exedra Lucia Saguì and Matilde Cante	73
25.	Auditoria near Trajan's Forum, single-seater toilet of second century AD Maria Rispoli	79
26-28.	Circus Maximus, urinals of second century AD Marialetizia Buonfiglio	83
29-30.	Largo Argentina, Grande Forica (29) and Forica Pensile (30) Monica Ceci	89
31.	Southwest area of the Palatine, near sanctuary of Magna Mater, multi-seater toilet of second and third century AD Fulvio Coletti	97
Imperial domain of the Palatine
32.	Bagni di Livia, multi-seater toilet of Neronian period Martina Almonte and Gemma Jansen	103
33.	Balneum underneath Domus Tiberiana, multi-seater toilet of Vespasianic period Gemma Jansen	109
34.	Domitian's Ramp, double-seater toilet of early second century AD Luciana Borrello and Mauro Maiorano	115
35-36.	Domus Augustana, nymphaeum of the sunken peristyle, semicircular three-seater toilet (35) and multi-seater toilet (36) both of Hadrianic period Andrea Schmölder-Veit and Natascha Sojc	121
37.	Domus Severiana, single-seater toilet of post-Severan period Andrea Schmölder-Veit	129
38.	Baths of Maxentius, multi-seater toilet of early fourth century AD Hubertus Manderscheid	133
Urban walls
39-55.	Aurelian Wall, seventeen single-seater toilets of early fifth century AD Hendrik Dey	137
Unknown functional contexts
56-57.	Domus Aurea, two multi-seater toilets of Flavian period Heinz-Jürgen Beste	147
58.	Via Garibaldi on Gianicolo, multi-seater toilet of late second to early third century AD Paola Chini	153
59.	Via Magenta on northern Viminalis, multi-seater toilet of second century AD Gemma Jansen	159

60.	Caelius near SS. Quattro Coronati, multi-seater toilet recorded in the seventeenth century Richard Neudecker	161
Suburban villas: a case study of the Villa of the Quintilii
61-65.	Villa of the Quintilii on the Via Appia, five toilets in the main building complex of late second century AD Giuliana Galli and Riccardo Frontoni	163
66.	Villa of the Quintilii on the Via Appia, single-seater toilet at garden of late third century AD Carmela Lalli	173
Features misidentified as toilets resulting from insufficient material remains or poor documentation
1.	Building next to the nymphaeum in the Horti Sallustiani	179
2.	Ludus Magnus	180
3.	Balneum at the via tecta near the sanctuary of Mater Magna on the Palatine	180
4.	Viminal, Piazza dei Cinquecento, domus	181
5.	Viminal, Piazza dei Cinquecento, laundry	181
6.	Viminal, Piazza dei Cinquecento, taberna	182
7.	Colosseum, fourth ambulacrum	182
8.	Crypta Balbi, northern perimeter wall	182
9.	Crypta Balbi, northwestern section of porticus	184
10.	Crypta Balbi, eastern wing of porticus	184
11.	'Baths of Elagabalus' on the northeastern slope of the Palatine	185
12.	Insula under SS. Giovanni e Paolo	185
13.	Basilica Aemilia	186
14.	Horti Lamiani Gemma Jansen and Richard Neudecker	187

PART 2

Sanitary, urbanistic, and social agency

1.	Rome, caput mundi : Health, hygiene, and sanitation Ann Olga Koloski-Ostrow	191
2.	Water supply and drainage systems related to the toilets of Rome Gemma Jansen	213
3.	From wood to rosso antico . Sitting on the toilet in ancient Rome Gemma Jansen	223
4.	Urinating the Roman way Gemma Jansen	241
5.	Notdurft in Rom Richard Neudecker	259
About the authors		297
Bibliography		301
Index		315